SURPRISE MR. RICHTER

PRESIDENT OF SAENGERFEST IS HONORED BY MEMBERS OF BIG CHORUS

Mr. Chas. F. L. Richter of 1201 Mountain street was given a surprise Friday evening in honor of his birthday. Mr. Richter is president of the Saengerfest, which is to be held in Los Angeles in July, and about fifty members of the men's chorus came out to serenade him.

The evening was passed delightfully in singing German folk songs and a supper was served in the rathskeller, which was decorated in red, white and blue. Each of the gentlemen was given a boutonniere of bachelorette buttons. There was a birthday cake, encircled by sixty-two Cecil Brunner roses, with one large candle in the center.

Mr. Richter is also treasurer of the German Red Cross Aid society and was presented by the board of directors with a mammoth basket of red and white roses, sixty-two in number. Among the decorations was a large red cross of roses.

Mrs. Richter was assisted in the decorations by Mrs. Alfred Priest, Miss Bertha Peterson and Mr. Chas. Peterson. Mr. Priest was also a guest of the occasion, as was Mrs. Carl Marquardt of Chicago, who with her children, Harold and Dorothy, is visiting in Glendale.

GATHER WILD FLOWERS

Early in the spring the lot adjoining the building of the Pulliam Undertaking company, corner of Broadway and Louise, was ploughed up and planted to wild flowers. There are many varieties now blooming and there is scarcely an hour of the day when someone does not stop to gather a cluster of wild blossoms.

MRS. SLOAN GIVES PROGRAM

It was the pleasure of the members of the W. C. T. U. to spend Friday afternoon as guests at the home of Mrs. A. M. Brooks, 211 Jackson street. There was a large attendance, although the weather was unusually disagreeable.

The house was called to order by the vice-president, Mrs. P. A. C. Moore. Devotions were led by Mrs. Keim, using as a keynote John 15. A beautiful Bible lesson was given, in which Mrs. Keim gave reminiscences of her early Christian life.

Mrs. Cora Harrison Sloan then gave a well-balanced program, humor and pathos being dealt with only as an artist can do.

Some of the readings were "The Lovers," "Excuses" and "A Boy's Prayer."

The songs were "Springtime," by Cowan; "Isle of Dreams," Alcot; "My Laddie," Thayer; "The Penitent," Van der Vatter, and "The Slave Song," Del Riego.

Mrs. Sloan is greatly loved by the White Ribboners, not only from the fact of her splendid life, but in honor of the little mother of Mrs. Sloan, whose life was spent in W. C. T. U. work and was a member of Glendale W. C. T. U. until a short time ago, when Mrs. Harrison had a "heavenly birthday."

Mrs. Sloan became a member of the organization and in the near future will give another program.

As delightful refreshments were being served by the hostess, assisted by the social superintendent, Mrs. O. S. Palmer, Prof. A. M. Brooks arrived home and was called upon for a talk. The response given by Prof. Brooks was intensely earnest, briefly giving the progress made by the prohibition forces and the necessity of the abolition of the liquor traffic.

White Ribboners will meet in the near future when echoes of the county convention will be given. Visitors always welcome.

UNITY CHAPTER TO CELEBRATE

Members of Unity chapter, No. 116, R. A. M. of Glendale, are planning for a big time next Monday night, April 3, when they will celebrate their first birthday. Though only a babe, this organization is extremely strong and full of life, and they will demonstrate that fact on this occasion. Members of Unity lodge of Eagle Rock, Glendale and Burbank are invited to celebrate on Monday evening, as well as all master Masons in the valley.

There will be addresses by such well-known Masons as Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe, grand master of California; E. B. Spencer, grand king, and W. H. Gaynor, grand high priest of the Royal Arch Masons of California; Perry W. Weidner, the grand commander of the Knights Templar of California.

There will be good things to eat on this occasion and plenty of them. The make-up of Unity chapter is evidence that there will be a good time at Masonic temple next Monday night.

GLENDALE'S FLOAT

WILL REPRESENT MINIATURE MOUNTAINS AND VALLEYS—ELKS ARE TO MARCH

The foundation of the float which is to represent Glendale in the floral parade in Los Angeles Monday is being built today at the fire station under the direction of Mr. Steelman, who built the float for the tournament of roses in Pasadena Jan. 1.

City Manager T. W. Watson outlined the plan of the float and the idea is a very pretty and original one. An auto truck 28 feet in length forms the foundation of the float and the sides and wheels are concealed with greenery. The front part of the float represents a high mountain covered with dusty miller and other greenery and surmounted with a crown of snow made of white carnations. From tunnels under the mountain emerge two tracks on which miniature overland trains lead toward a depot labeled Los Angeles. From this point red cars find their way around smaller hills toward Glendale, the entire scene being a miniature of the country through which the Pacific Electric passes between Los Angeles and Glendale—Glendale being at the rear part of the float. Greenery, shrubs and flowers cover the hills and valleys.

This unique, pretty and suggestive float will be followed in the parade by an automobile covered with roses and driven by Mrs. Oliver O. Clark. Forty people have already volunteered roses for the float and it is expected that more will be forthcoming between now and tomorrow afternoon, when the roses will be used.

Ladies who will ride in the auto are Mrs. Albert Pearce, Miss Phillips, Mrs. A. L. Weaver and Mrs. Cable.

The White Star Patrol of Glendale Elks' lodge will also take part in the parade and Glendale will have reason to feel proud of her representation.

SANITARIUM NOTES

The sanitarium recently enjoyed a musical entertainment given in our parlors by Mr. Saunders, violinist, and Mrs. Bachman, accompanist.

Another musical treat worthy of note was given in the church Thursday evening by Prof. G. B. Miller, organist, and Miss Susine Wessels, violinist, the Glendale male quartet also rendering two numbers.

The Glendale sanitarium was recently favored with a visit from Dr. J. H. Kellogg, head of the Battle Creek, Mich., sanitarium. The doctor is making a tour of the coast, visiting relatives and friends, and the various institutions.

EIGHTH GRADE PUPILS CARRY OUT PROGRAM WITH FLYING COLORS

The concert and moving picture show given Friday evening at the Majestic theater under the auspices of the graduating class of the Intermediate school was a success from start to finish. The boys' band from the Whittier state school certainly did itself proud, giving evidence of much talent and training. The soloists were especially to be commended as also was the reader. The young people of the intermediate, as well as the public, certainly appreciated the generosity of the boys in donating their services. The program given during the two shows was as follows:

"Songs My Mother Used to Sing," Dan Mattos and Miss Wheeler, with clarinet accompaniment by White and Trowbridge.

Trombone solo, "The Holy City," George Bradshaw, with quartet accompaniment.

Sextette, "Men of Columbia," Brass quartet, "College Songs," Reading, "The Voluntary Organist," Willis Knowles.

Encore, "Charge of the Light Brigade."

Song, "Tipperary," Dan Mattos and Milton Bolander, with sextette accompaniment.

The parade was carried out practically as planned, except for a slight delay in starting caused by the rain. The possibility of showers also forced the line of march to be covered rather hurriedly.

The financial result will not be known until Monday, but two full houses were evidence of the interest taken by the general public, and the class is to be congratulated on the splendid spirit shown.

Arrangements for the class party to be given Friday evening, May 7, are now under way.

The graduation exercises will take place at the high school auditorium June 4th, when the largest class in the history of the school will receive diplomas.

RETURN SCHOOL MONEY

EDUCATION COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS THAT COUNTIES BE REIMBURSED

The senate education committee has decided to recommend that $600,000 of the school money lost to the counties by the repeal of the poll tax be paid to the counties by the state. The state will raise this extra money through a corporation license tax, and an increase in the inheritance tax. Bills to this effect are in the assembly. The amount allowed per pupil will be increased from $13 to $15. Local tax must make up other deficits in the school funds.

Senator Thompson has worked out a plan by which he claims the school taxes by local communities will be equalized.

The assembly has passed the Meek bill increasing inheritance tax rates on all estates of $50,000 or more. It was said that the bill will add a revenue of six or seven hundred thousand dollars to the state. There were only three noes.

REPAIRING AND PAINTING

There is not another city in Southern California that will compare with Glendale as to neatness and attractiveness. However, there is a tendency here, as in many other cities, to sometimes neglect keeping dwelling houses and other buildings in proper repair.

The attractiveness of property is one of the important points in renting or selling that property. When a dwelling house bears the appearance of being neglected, it depreciates the value of that house much more than the expense would be to make the improvements necessary to have it look neat and attractive. A screen door in poor repair and unpainted may be put in good shape at an expense of probably two dollars, when in fact the neglected appearance given to the property by the defective and unpainted screen door, may cut the value of the property down one hundred dollars or more.

While houses in Glendale are quite generally kept well painted, yet there are instances where a fresh coat of paint would add several hundred dollars to the value of the property.

Many times the houses needing paint are owned by persons who claim they cannot afford to go to the expense of having the houses painted when in reality the truth of the matter is that these are the very people who cannot afford to have the value of their property cut down on account of not having them painted. The man of means is the only one who can afford to be careless in these particulars, and of course he is not, if he is a good business man, and the majority of men who have gained a competence in this world are shrewd business men.

BREEDING DREADFUL DISEASE EPIDEMICS IN WAR ZONE

Seemingly authentic reports come from Serbia that that country is now scourged with typhus and other very dreadful maladies and that an outbreak of cholera is feared, upon the approach of warm weather. Fear is entertained that the most frightful epidemics in the history of Europe may sweep over that continent, either while the great war is raging or in its wake. Do what sanitarians may, it is utterly impossible to maintain sanitary conditions along the far-flung battle line of Europe. Conditions perhaps never before were so menacing to the health of so vast a region, and so great a number of people. Naturally, Europe, with its resources drained almost to the limit in the prosecution of the great war, is in no position successfully to combat a disease scourge. War may yet mar Europe as greatly through epidemics as it has with guns.

MAY DAY PARTY

The May day party at the Congregational church Friday evening was well attended. The rooms were very prettily decorated. Miss Ruby Farnsworth was the queen and most charmingly filled the part. She was attended by little flower girls. The May pole, with the boys and girls moving around, made a most attractive picture.

The male quartet rendered several selections to the great pleasure of all. A piano duet by Mrs. Von Oven and Miss Patterson was much appreciated. Mr. E. O. Von Oven in his own fascinating manner sang two solos.

The Woman's Auxiliary is much pleased with the success of the entertainment. The readings by Miss Marcella Miller were given in a most able and entertaining manner.

So many people go about this world with their eyes shut.

TROPICO ITEMS

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES FROM THE NEWS TROPICO CORRESPONDENT

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Bahrenberg entertained with a most charmingly appointed dinner party at their beautiful home, "Twin Pines," on West Park avenue, Friday evening. The rooms were redolent with the fragrance of many beautiful roses. A large low-cut bowl simply overflowed with many dainty buds and roses of the pretty Mamman Cochet variety. Seated with Dr. and Mrs. Bahrenberg were Dr. and Mrs. C. N. Bahrenberg of Redlands, their son and daughter, who are at present their house guests. Also Mr. and Mrs. George Wicks of Bakersfield, Mr. William Bahrenberg and Miss Bernice Ayres of Los Angeles. A number of musical selections preceded the dinner.

Mrs. Warren Roberts, representing the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club, Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club, and Miss Ruby Borthick, secretary of Glen Eyrie chapter, Order of Eastern Star, visited in Tropico Friday distributing tickets in the interest of Miss Fredonia Borthick, queen candidate supported by Glen Eyrie chapter. Miss Borthick is worthy matron of the chapter and the members are working hard to have their candidate elected. Judging by the enthusiasm displayed by the members of this order and their earnest work, Miss Borthick will win and be crowned queen of the Fruit and Flower Festival of Glendale.

Sir Francis and Mrs. Booth of Gardena avenue attended the grand ball and card party given by Pacific chapter, Order of Eastern Star, in Los Angeles on Friday evening. Queen Sibyl Mather led the grand march.

A large number of the citizens of Tropico witnessed the pageant of the story of the Golden West in Los Angeles this morning and later enjoyed the big Rodeo at the stadium.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wicks of Bakersfield are spending the week as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Bahrenberg of "Twin Pines" on West Park avenue.

Ice is reported in a number of chicken yards and on depressions where there was any water standing. An early morning visit to everyone's garden was made, anxious lest the frost had done some damage. And this the first of May!

SCHOOL TRUSTEES ORGANIZE

The city school trustees met in their office in the Intermediate school at 1 o'clock today and reorganized. Dr. J. E. Echols was elected president and John Todd was re-elected clerk.

The board made an inspection this forenoon of the new school buildings in South Pasadena, Lamanda Park, Alhambra and Monrovia and are frank to say that the new school buildings in Glendale compare very favorably with any they saw.

Among the first acts of the new board were to instruct their architect to alter the plans of the new front at the Intermediate school building, and the front will be seven feet less in height than was formerly planned, which they claim will more accurately conform to the architecture of other new school buildings.

GLENDALE DELEGATION IN PASADENA

A good starter for the tabernacle meeting the other night was the way in which the Glendale Baptist delegation made themselves known when they filed in, sixty strong, about 7:30 o'clock and gave their special yell in answer to the welcome waved to them by the evangelists, says the Pasadena News.

Glendale delegations have been present at many of the services here and this interest is a sure evidence of the grip Messrs. Brown and Curry obtained on that city during their campaign there.

Seventy-five of the day school teachers of Pasadena, eighty business women and one hundred high school students sat in reserved sections of the tabernacle.

Two prominent men sat with the ministers. Rev. J. H. Troy, pastor of the Glendale Baptist church, was pointed out as the man who debated against Rutherford last week in Los Angeles Trinity auditorium on the question of the millennial dawn. H. August Hunderup, Baptist singing evangelist of Portland, Ore., was also present.

Mr. Cunningham of Glendale sang "Sweetest as the Days Go By" in a very pleasing manner. Mr. Cunningham did a great deal of solo and duet work for Mr. Curry during the meetings there.

OFFERING COMPLAINT

IF YOU HAVE CRITICISMS OFFER THEM TO THE PERSON CRITICIZED

There is always a best way of doing things. So it is with offering complaint of poor service from the hands of employees of municipal or private corporations. Whenever there is a neglect or an error on the part of an employee of any department, the most sensible and satisfactory way of having the correction made is to make complaint direct to the individual or individuals responsible for the neglect or error.

The criticism should be made in a courteous but firm manner, and it should not be made public. A person who is worthy of holding a position of trust, deserves to be treated with a dignity commensurate with the position which he holds. When a person holding a position of any kind becomes so careless and indifferent that he cannot be accorded this treatment, it is better for the public and all parties concerned to have the position filled by another person who will give the proper attention to his work.

The plan of announcing the shortcomings of an employee or the head of a department to the world because there has been a slight neglect in some particular, is not the best way of doing to get the desired results. It has been observed that the most good can be done in this world by making criticisms in a quiet and courteous manner. It is the desire of most people to do that which is right, and to perform the duties devolving upon them in a manner satisfactory to the public or the corporation in whose employ they may be.

The same rule may hold true in calling attention to the faults of young people. If a person in whom a boy places confidence will kindly call attention to the faults of that boy, he will stand ready to be benefited by the good advice. If, however, his faults are paraded before the public, the boy will become stubborn, and will take delight in doing the very things, even although they may be wrong, that he has been asked not to do.

The men and women who do the most good in the world rarely make public the good work that they are doing.

ICE IN MAY IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The weather in this section the past few days has been decidedly winter-like. Cold rains and low temperature bring memories of March and November in states further east. The high Sierras have a fresh coat of the beautiful, a blizzard having raged among the peaks on Thursday night. Friday sun and rain interspersed with hail alternated all day. Today it is clear, but cool. Clem Moore reports that he had occasion to cross the bridge across the wash at 6 o'clock this morning and that there was ice on the bridge at that time. Ice on May day in Southern California is indeed "unusual."

AERONAUTICAL COMPETITION

SAN DIEGO, May 1.—With a prize list totaling $100,000, the national aeronautical competition to begin in San Diego on July 4th and continue for 101 days will furnish a big feature entertainment for visitors to the San Diego exposition. This will be the greatest drawing card the exposition has had and in the competition the most famous civilian and military aviators will engage. Governors of many states have sent letters suggesting that as the competition is principally for the purpose of developing aviators for the militia and carrying the mail, each state can at small cost enter aeroplanes in the competition.

One big feature of the competition is that there is a special award of $25,000 to the pilot who makes the best time in a transcontinental flight. A separate division of the competition will be given over to demonstrations of the practicability of carrying mail by aeroplane. Between $5000 and $10,000 as prizes in this division.

The postoffice department has prepared a schedule of isolated places in certain states where the delivery of mail between points twenty to ninety miles apart now occupies days, but which would require only an hour or two by aeroplane. The principal value of this prize is that it will afford to the postoffice department the opportunity of determining if the people who want their mail delivered promptly will pay between twenty-five and fifty cents to have it delivered by aeroplane. If so, it is urged, aerial mail carrying will support itself and the department can establish lines without further delay, while the machines and aviators employed will form an aerial military reserve.

NORTH GLENDALE

MISS RUBY WRIGHT IS COMPLIMENTED WITH SHOWER—OTHER NEWS NOTES

Mrs. T. W. Sampson of 1659 Ruth street, with her son, Master Tom, Jr., leave Monday for Lemon Grove, Cal., where they will spend the summer as guests of Mrs. Sampson's father, Mr. Lewis of that place.

Friends of Mr. Leland Duncan will be very sorry to hear that he is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism and is confined to the bed because of it.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor of 1432 Burchett street are entertaining as their house guests at the present time Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hall of St. Paul, Minn., who are visiting extensively in California.

Mrs. Lewis Cadwallader of 1624 Ruth street entertained as her guests very recently her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Largey of Alhambra.

Mrs. George D. Alston of 1112 Chestnut street entertained with a luncheon party and kitchen shower Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Ruby F. Wright, who at an early date will become the bride of John Ransom Alston. The decorations were very pretty, pink roses and ferns being used very effectively throughout the rooms. The dining-room table was especially attractive, roses intermingled with ferns being artistically festooned around the electrolier and brought down to the center of the table, where a dainty bride and important groom stood in a bower of roses, very suggestive of the occasion and which created much merriment. The place favors were tiny pink baskets filled with Cecil Brunner roses and bonbons, and a delicious luncheon was served to the guests, the gracious hostess being assisted in serving by her niece, Miss Mary Vradenburg. The happy honored guest was the recipient of many useful gifts and the best wishes were extended to the bride-to-be by the following guests who were invited to enjoy the delightful occasion: Mrs. John Rockhold, Mrs. J. E. Eckles, Mrs. Fannie Crouch, Mrs. S. W. Corwin, Mrs. William Alston, Miss Ella Steele, Miss Louise Butterfield, Miss Hazel Anderson, Mrs. O. S. Sampson, Miss Marjory Duncan, Miss Ruth Wright, Miss Olive Wright, Miss Mary Vradenburg, Mrs. O. E. Wright of Glendale and Mrs. Will Lacey, Mrs. C. DeWitt, Mr. Charles Throop and Mrs. E. E. Mansel of Los Angeles.

ADVISES THINNING FRUIT

The California Cured Fruit exchange, in a letter to its members, gives the following advice to the growers:

The present indications are for a large peach crop for 1915, with the prices probably as low as 1914, and on account of this, it is very essential for all of our members to be very careful of fruit that they dry this year. In the first place, the thinning should be done carefully, so as to raise the grade of fruit and thereby get better prices for it, so we would request everyone of our members to thoroughly thin all trees so as to produce larger peaches, and thereby a better quality. They should thin early and not wait until the pits begin to harden. In thinning, as much as possible, leave the peaches on the underneath portion of the limbs, instead of those on top. The grower who has large peaches will get just as much weight, with less labor, and more money than those who have a large quantity of poor, undersized fruit. This applies equally to apricots, so don't forget that the large, fine quality of fruit is what you want to get results with.—Pacific Fruit World.

THE NELSON WILL

W. R. Nelson of the Star showed how little he thought of money by what he did with his estate. He provided for his family and then turned all that he had made back to the people from whom it came. He didn't feel the importance of sowing for others to reap. He didn't feel that founding an estate would help anything. He didn't carefully safeguard it to his heirs for all time. He was only anxious that what he had made should get back into the hands of the people and not stop in the hands of any unknown heirs or assigns. One of the saddest things on earth is the way men sometimes worship money in their wills, and try to guide its destinies to the third and the fourth generations. Money is one of the cheapest things in the world and it cheapens whoever tries to hold it.—California Outlook.

Accuracy first and rapidity second, should be the governing rule in doing all kinds of work.

BETTER MOTION PICTURES FOR CHILDREN

The Woman's Home Companion is carrying on a great campaign for better motion pictures. In the May issue it recommends 134 films. Along with these recommendations appears a special article entitled "Better Films for Children," in which a report is made of an interesting experiment conducted in Louisville, Ky., by Mrs. Frederic Levy.

Mrs. Frederic Levy discovered that her children had attended an undesirable motion picture show. This aroused her interest in getting better motion pictures for Louisville children and she arranged with moving picture managers for a special performance for children given in a Louisville theater once a week, every Saturday morning. The usual ushers are dispensed with and young women attend to the comfort of the children who come from all kinds of homes and vary in age from four to sixteen. Following is an extract from Mrs. Levy's own account of how the children have received this kind of an arrangement:

"Do they appreciate it? You just ought to hear them! They applauded the hero and hiss the villain in true melodramatic style. At a critical moment they jump up and shout advice to the despairing heroine. They weep, they laugh, they yell, according to which chord of their emotions is twanged. They are not seeing pictures. They are living life, a life as full of sweet adventures as a plum pudding.

"We have not worked out all the problems by any means. For instance, the theater is centrally located in the business district. This means that many children must pay carfare, which is a considerable item in some families.

"Our plan holds possibilities for any city to work out a systematic method for children's programs. Our chief expense is due to our long distance from the exchanges which serve us, the nearest being Cincinnati and Indianapolis. If the interested women in those cities where exchanges are located could work up special programs, their judgment could be taken by women in other places. A network of co-operative service could be built up over a considerable territory surrounding an exchange if a number of intelligent people would devote some of their time to this urgent need."

Japan ousted Germany from China and intends to remain and to spread. There is no contention that Germany had any particular right to be there, but it had as much right as Japan. The latter is an interloper, bent on spoils, and, whether or not China is capable of kicking it out, deserves to be kicked out.

Despite a desire to be kind, the average American doubts that Huerta is quite so good as Huerta seems.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

M. E. LADIES' AID

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church will hold their regular meeting next Tuesday in the church parlors. Lunch will be served at 12:30, to which all the ladies of the church are cordially invited. The new members of the church and of the society being honor guests, they will bring no lunch. Members of the society who do not know what they are to bring will please call Mrs. Lusby, who is chairman of the refreshment committee. This is to celebrate the close of the membership contest, which resulted in a tie.

ROSES—ROSES—ROSES

Ten Thousand Roses are needed to decorate the float and several autos which will represent the city of Glendale at the Flower Pageant to be held Monday, May 3, in Los Angeles. All who have roses that they are willing to donate for this good cause, please call Sunset Glendale 31 or Home 2484.

All kinds of roses are wanted. Cut them with long stems and the committee will call for them on Sunday afternoon.

We all want to see Glendale well represented upon that important occasion. An abundance of roses are necessary. We want to use nothing but Glendale valley roses.

Please phone today.
21544 COMMITTEE.

Pastor Troy will commence a series of addresses on "The Divine Plan of the Ages" at the morning service. This will afford Bible students in this locality a rare opportunity to master the main outline of a true biblical eschatology under the instruction of an experienced teacher.

It is reported that many from neighboring towns will come to Glendale to take in this important series.

At the evening service Miss Patterson will deliver one of her soul-stirring missionary messages. Rev. Troy will be present and deliver a short Bible reading in conjunction with the special address.

All members of the Baptist gospel team are exhorted to pray and work for the 6 o'clock open-air service, corner of Brand and Broadway.

Bible school commences promptly at 9:30, with Mr. Roy Kent leading. Classes for all ages. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Mr. Kendrick, president.

BIBLE LECTURE COURSE

The Rev. D. F. Fox, D. D., will deliver the third lecture of the series of Bible lectures at the high school next Monday evening at 7:45. He is an exceedingly strong speaker and is classed by eastern papers as the "Pacific coast orator," a man much sought for platform addresses. He is the pastor of the First Congregational church of Pasadena. His name is well known on every chautauqua platform of this country. He will speak on the subject of "Christian Faith." The lecture is free. Come early if you want a seat. Every seat will be taken by 7:45 sharp.

Mexicans are reported to have killed an American named Grijalba, the name perhaps having permitted them to be led into this error. At any rate, Grijalba had been warned not to enter Mexico, being regarded as a spy, and in disobeying was taking the chances of war.

Besides its surpassing climate, this state has at least fifty-six other varieties of advantages and attractions.

There is just so much striving that must be done, just so much burden of responsibility to bear. Each one who shirks work and evades responsibility thereby makes the lot of his fellowman the harder. For somebody must perform the work and shoulder the obligations that make the wheels of normal human activity go 'round.

It is reported from Redlands that the orange crop of the Redlands district this season will reach 4800 to 5000 cars. The navel crop, it is said, will be cleaned up in two weeks. It is estimated that there will be 1000 cars of Valencia's to go forward.

PERSONALS

Mrs. C. O. Winters, who has been visiting for more than two weeks with Mrs. Wesley Slavelle of Ontario, is expected home early next week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tarr, 431 Isabel street, Glendale, on Thursday, April 29, a son. Both mother and baby are getting along nicely.

The city manager, with several assistants, is very busy constructing and decorating a municipal float that is to be used in the May Fiesta parade in Los Angeles next Monday.

Mrs. Lillian Coland and sister, Mrs. R. H. Fletcher of Long Beach, are spending the week-end with Mrs. C. M. Anderson of 129 East Colorado boulevard.

Miss Elizabeth Cowan, who has resided for the past seven years in El Reno, Oklahoma, arrived in Glendale Friday evening and is a guest in the home of her brother, A. T. Cowan, 114 Orange street.

Do not hesitate to hand news items into the Evening News office. Would prefer to have announcements of regular meetings written out. Personal mentions and society news will gladly be received by telephone.

Miss Eva Allway of El Paso, Texas, is visiting Mrs. Edwards of 1411 West Colorado boulevard. She has just returned from a visit to the exposition and will probably locate in Glendale.

Rev. R. Warren Mottern and family of Riverside have moved to Glendale and are now located at 340 South Central avenue. Rev. Mottern is the pastor of the First English Evangelical Lutheran church, services of which are held in the new I. O. O. F. hall.

Mrs. B. S. Hill and her daughter, Mrs. Wilmer Lewis of Greely, Colo., who have been visiting this week with Mrs. J. M. Border and Miss Bartlett of 231 South Louise street, are leaving today for Los Angeles and later for San Diego.

Mrs. R. E. Chase and Mrs. A. W. Tower returned Friday evening from Alhambra, where they have been attending the P. E. O. convention. Mrs. Martha Smith of Hollywood was elected state president and Mrs. J. G. Hunchberger of Glendale was chosen to be one of the fifteen delegates to the supreme convention that will be held in Los Angeles in October.

Mrs. Walter Earhart of El Paso, Texas, and Mrs. Maud Smith of Los Angeles spent the day Wednesday with Miss Helen Beatrice Cooper of 1411 West Colorado boulevard. These three ladies were friends in El Paso and a most enjoyable time was had recalling old days. Mrs. Earhart, who is on her way home from a trip around the world, is a pupil of Miss Cooper's first teacher.

Hazel Flower entertained Friday evening a number of her friends at the J. H. Flower home, 830 South Adams street. The guests present were the Misses Irene Meyers, Dorothy Leech, Ida Potter, Miss Lynk, and Messrs. Grindell, James McBryde, Elmer and Jesse Flower and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flower. The house was prettily decorated with roses and calla lilies. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games.

STILL THE HAWKEYES COME

Mr. and Mrs. Mussetter and son Frank of Victor, Iowa, spent Friday with Mrs. J. M. Border and Miss Bartlett of 231 South Louise street, who were old friends and neighbors in the eastern city. The Mussetters are making an extended trip through California. They have visited San Diego and other points of interest in the South and are going on to San Francisco the first of next week. They expressed themselves as delighted with Glendale.

MRS. BLACK ENTERTAINS

The officers of the Missionary society of Los Angeles Presbyterian were entertained by Mrs. David Black at their ranch home in North Glendale Friday, April 30. Their regular monthly meeting was held and fourteen ladies were entertained at lunch. The house was beautifully decorated with roses, sweet peas and carnations.

Some men are born foolish and some fall in love.

Owners of Ford machines are promised a $50 slice of melon this summer, which ought to make the jokes they have to bear easier to endure.

The Washington rancher who shot at some joyriders the other night is being criticized by the press of the Northwest for the poorness of his aim on this occasion.

RETURN FROM CAMPING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ingledue of 725 West Third street returned on Thursday morning from a two weeks' motor camping trip to the exposition. They went by the valley route and found it a most delightful experience. A good deal of work is being done on the state highway, but in general the road is excellent. So much, however, could not be said of the coast route, by which they returned, for they found the Gaviota pass between San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara almost impassible.

PINK AND WHITE LUNCHEON

Mrs. G. E. Daniels of 300 South Central avenue entertained a number of friends at a delicious luncheon on Thursday, at which a pink and white color scheme was carried out exquisitely in all the decorations. The afternoon was spent at games and various amusing contests, Mrs. Van Zant and Mrs. McKee being the prize winners. Those present were Mrs. Frank Buchanan, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. Plummer Van Zant, Mrs. Goodman Phillips, Miss Eva Daniels, Mrs. Wm. Goodridge, Mrs. Purser and Mrs. Andrew Wightman.

MAY PARTY FOR CHILDREN

About sixteen of the Philathea girls of the Glendale Presbyterian church gave a May party on Friday for the children of the Presbyterian mission in Chinatown. The Junior Endeavor society of the church had prepared May baskets for each of the forty-five children of the mission. The Philathea girls presented each of the teachers, one of whom is Miss Jennie Horsch of Glendale, with especially beautiful baskets, each containing a gift. Refreshments were served and all had a most delightful time.

ENTERTAIN GLEANERS

The Gleaners' Sunday school class of the West Glendale M. E. church was entertained Friday evening by Mrs. S. A. Davis of 525 South Central avenue. After the business meeting Mrs. Johnson favored the company with several piano selections and Mrs. Van Leuven and Miss Genevieve Mulligan each gave two readings.

Several enjoyable games were then played and a moulding contest was held, which developed the fact that there are several notable artists among the class.

There were about thirty present. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Swartz of Newton Center, Kans., and Miss Evelyn Mitchell of Los Angeles.

SPEED OF RAILWAY TRAINS

Among the fast records of railway trains for short distances are the following: New York Central and Hudson river, one mile in thirty-two seconds; Pennsylvania, five and a half miles in three minutes; Burlington route, two and one-fourth miles in one minute and twenty seconds; the Plant system, five miles in two and one-half minutes; Philadelphia and Reading, four and eight-tenths miles in two and a half minutes.

The fastest time on record for a distance of over 440 miles was made by the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern from Buffalo to Chicago in June, 1905, when the distance of 525 miles was covered in seven hours and fifty minutes. The fastest long distance run less than 440 miles was on the New York Central on Sept. 11, 1895, from New York to Buffalo, 436 1/2 miles, in 407 minutes. The average speed was sixty-four and one-third miles an hour, with two stops and twenty-eight slow-ups, and on Jan. 1, 1903, from Albany to Buffalo, 302 miles, in 295 minutes.—Philadelphia Press.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Bert P. Woodard of 232 South Maryland avenue gave a delightful six-course dinner on Friday night in honor of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodard of Chattanooga, Tenn. The decorations were in pink and green, Cecil Brunner roses being used in profusion. Covers were laid for ten. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woodard of Chattanooga, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Campbell, Mr. G. N. Parks, Jr., and Miss Frances Parks of Los Angeles, Miss Hazel Wheatley and Little Miss Virginia Woodard.

THE LOAFER

They say that I am worthless and I guess, at least, I be, 'cause kids and other people's dogs they all shine up to me. While decent men is scrambling to nail a dollar down, I spend the best part of my time in aimless ramblin' round. I pity lots of well dressed folks that coolly pass me by the weariness that's on their lips, the pain that's in their eye. In winter, just a corner near to some one else's fire; in summer time a patch of shade is the top of my desire. A gun when fall winds whistle, a pole when fishes bite, three meals, or less if need be, and a place to sleep at night. To turn a little favor for a stranger or a pal, to get a tender smile from a youngster or a gal, to grin with them that's grinnin' and weep with them that weep, to never mind my enemies and like my friends a heap, to never hurt a woman's heart, nor do a man a wrong—I ask for nothing else except—to drift and loaf along.

More work can be accomplished, usually, an hour just after sunrise than an hour just before sunset.
